

Water

(Quote introducing the movie FLOW: "Thousands live without love, none without water.") when they roam, guitar boys back home follow the flow, the joys, running after floating toys, the noise they make today, is shaped by lake and ocean, biggest stash of precious potion. Liquid, all in in motion, circling my veins, the lanes that carry, cherry color fluid, love color, holler after me....

Water! Without it no son, without it, no daughter

Water! Without it no love, without it no life

Water! Without it no hubby, without it no wife

Water! Without it no shower, without it no flower

Water! Without it no breath, no food to devour...

Water!

Check out the flower, towering clouds, graceful deer, tasteful beer, laughter, cheer, all our dreaming, freezing, steaming, growing, flowing, dipping bodies, tripping, shipping Think of the ice, carrots and rice, and nuttin' but one thing will suffice....

Ya need

Water! For living, and Water! For growing, and Water! For raining, and Water! For snowing, and Water! For breathing, and Water! For drinking, and Water! For working, and Water! For thinking, and Water! For feeding, and Water! For, breeding, and Water! For cleaning, and Water! For greening.

There's

Water! In sprouts, and Water! In cherries, and Water! In nuts, and Water! In berries, and Water! In fishies, and Water! In birds, and Water! In blossoms, and Water! In nerds, and Water! In plummers, and Water! In drummers, and Water! In farmers, and Water! In charmers.
